

2014 Tennessee Junior Market Hog Show

During the 2014 Tennessee Junior Market Hog Show, 233 4-H and FFA members exhibited 446 hogs. In addition to showing individual market hogs, there were competitions in showmanship, carcass ultra-sounding, skillathon and premier exhibitor.

The market hog show was held in conjunction with the Tennessee Pork Producers Association annual meeting. Market hog exhibitors were treated to a pizza and pool party and a barbeque lunch. The judge for the show was Warren Beeler of Caneyville, Ky.

2014 was the second year using the custom-built show ring system made by Tennessee Farmers Cooperative's Gate Plant in LaVergne, Tennessee. A special thank you to the sponsors of the show ring: Tennessee Farmers Cooperative, Farm Credit of Mid America, Tennessee Department of Agriculture, Tennessee Livestock Producers, and the Tennessee Pork Producers Association!

Tennessee Farm Bureau Insurance sponsored the $1,000 Senior Level II and the $500 Senior Level I Premier Exhibitor scholarships. UT Department of Animal Science presented the exhibitors of the grand champion and reserve grand champion trophy award belt buckles. Farm Credit of Mid-America awarded showmanship winners with $100 cash awards. Tosh Farms, Goolsby Sausage, Pig Improvement Company, and Zoetis sponsored premium awards for champion and reserve champion hogs. Other sponsors of the 2014 Market Hog Show include Tennessee Farmers Cooperative, Tennessee Department of Agriculture, Tennessee Pork Producers Association, Jonathan Pierce, Dr. Dwight Loveday, Prater Show Pigs, Carr Brothers, Reese Brothers Mule Company, UT Department of Animal Science and UT Extension.
