

Tennessee Agribition Livestock Judging Contest

Saturday, March 10, 2018

Ward Agriculture Center

945 E. Baddour Parkway
Lebanon, Tennessee 37087

Eligibility: Competition is open to youth, 4-H and FFA members. There is no limit on the number of teams that may come from a 4-H club, FFA chapter, or state.

Junior Division: Youth who are any age through sixth grade as of January 1 of the current year. This includes pre-4-H youth, but they must be able to do their own work

Junior High Division: 4-H and FFA members grades 7 - 9 as of January 1 of the current year.

Senior Division: 4-H and FFA members grades 10 - 12 as of January 1 of the current year.

NOTE: A youth can move up a division, but cannot move down. Example - a 9th grade can move up to the Senior Division, but a 10th grader cannot move down to the Junior High Division.

Teams: Teams must consist of three (3) or four (4) members with the top three (3) scores constituting the team score.

Individuals: Individuals will be allowed to compete for individual awards only.

Classes: Contest will consist of 6-10 classes if either cattle, swine, goats or sheep depending on accessibility. Senior Division contestants will be asked two sets of 5 questions. In the event a question has more than one correct answer, any one of the correct answers will receive full credit. Contest officials will decide the classes which will have the questions. Question scores will be added for use as tie breakers and the order for breaking ties

Award Money: Tennessee Agribition will award first place teams $100.

Check-in: All contestants are to check-in at the East/West Building. Check-in/final instructions will take place from 8:00 AM - 8:30 AM, with the contest starting at 9:00 AM

Personal communication devices are prohibited. Contestants talking to anyone but a group leader may be disqualified.

Lunch will not be provided.

Awards will be presented approximately thirty minutes following the conclusion of the contest.

Entries will close at 6:00 PM ET on THURSDAY, March 1, 2018

ALL TEAMS MUST BE PRE-ENTERED! Absolutely, NO additions will be made on-site!!