Tennessee Farmers Market Boot Camp Educational Program

Educational workshops for farmers market vendors. A collaboration of the Center for Profitable Agriculture, UT Extension, the Tennessee Department of Agriculture and USDA.
Workshops will feature presentations and discussions on:

- Understanding the Need for Regulations on Processed Fruits and Vegetables—how regulations help vendors and help support the market

- Be Outstanding in Your Field with a Fabulous Farmers Market Display—how to improve your display from “good” to “wonderful”

- Are You Covered When Selling Fruits and Vegetables? Be Informed About Product Liability Risk—insurance applications and limitations related to liability risk from food-borne illness

- Retail Meat Sales Guidelines—regulations and proper food handling

- Plant the Right Fruit and Vegetable Seeds to Grow Your Bank Account—how to sell to restaurants

- Resources for Specialty Crop Growers Through the Center for Profitable Agriculture—publications and workshops on the Center’s website

- Updates: Milk Sales and USDA Poultry Exemptions

- Introduction to Whole Farm Revenue Protection—a new insurance program available to specialty crop growers
